

2022 - 2023 Section 98b		Mid-Year Goals	End of Year Goals
6th - 8th Grade Goals	Reading	60% of students tested during the Winter test window will meet or exceed their personal growth goal on the NWEA MAP Reading assessment as set by their performance during the Fall test window.	60% of students tested during the Spring test window will meet or exceed their personal growth goal on the NWEA MAP Reading assessment as set by their performance during the Fall and Winter test windows.
	Math	60% of students tested during the Winter test window will meet or exceed their personal growth goal on the NWEA MAP Math assessment as set by their performance during the Fall test window.	60% of students tested during the Spring test window will meet or exceed their personal growth goal on the NWEA MAP Math assessment as set by their performance during the Fall and Winter test windows.
9th - 12th Grade Goals	Reading	60% of students tested during the Winter test window will meet or exceed their personal growth goal on the NWEA MAP Reading assessment as set by their performance during the Fall test window.	60% of students tested during the Spring test window will meet or exceed their personal growth goal on the NWEA MAP Reading assessment as set by their performance during the Fall and Winter test windows.
	Reading	50% of all 9th - 12th grade students who enrolled on or before 10/12/2022 (60 school days before the end of Term 4) will demonstrate proficiency by averaging a score of 2 or higher on the standards based summative assessments in their completed core English classes.	70% of all 9th - 12th grade students who enrolled on or before 11/22/2022 (120 school days before the end of Term 8) will demonstrate proficiency by averaging a score of 2 or higher on the standards based summative assessments in their completed core English classes.
	Math	60% of students tested during the Winter test window will meet or exceed their personal growth goal on the NWEA MAP Math assessment as set by their performance during the Fall test window.	60% of students tested during the Spring test window will meet or exceed their personal growth goal on the NWEA MAP Math assessment as set by their performance during the Fall and Winter test windows.
	Math	50% of all 9th - 12th grade students who enrolled on or before 10/12/2022 (60 school days before the end of Term 4) will demonstrate proficiency by averaging a score of 2 or higher on the standards based summative assessments in their completed core math classes.	70% of all 9th - 12th grade students who enrolled on or before 11/22/2022 (120 school days before the end of Term 8) will demonstrate proficiency by averaging a score of 2 or higher on the standards based summative assessments in their completed core math classes.